Please, cut out everything drawn with a continuous line and bend everything drawn with a dashed line. Paste the flaps on the walls and you will have built your own house. Use your imagination and paint its roof, walls, and door.

It can be a gingerbread house or perhaps a haunted castle.

Cut out selected houses, trees, mountains, and other items on the next page, then place them around the world, and paste them after one another, where you would like them most.
